Use of Cookies

This website uses cookies to better the users experience while visiting the website. Cookies are small text files that are stored by your browser on your computer's hard drive allowing websites to recognise one user from another. They do lots of different jobs like letting you navigate between pages efficiently, storing preferences and generally improving your experience of a website.

What to do if you don't want cookies to be set

Some people find the idea of a website storing information on their device a bit intrusive. Although this is generally quite harmless, you may not, for example, want to see advertising that has been targeted to your interests. If you prefer, it is possible to block some or all cookies, or even to delete cookies that have already been set; but you need to be aware that you might lose some functions of the website. You can remove cookies cookies by going into your browsers control panel/preferences.

Security

All information will be kept as confidential and secure as possible. D. D. Engineering Ltd will follow strict security procedures in the storage, disclosure, retention and deletion of information in line with the Data Protection Act of 1998 and the General Data Protection Regulations.

Changes to our policy

We keep our privacy policy under regular review and we will place any updates on this on our website and we will place any updates on our webpage. This privacy policy was last updated on 25th May 2018.
